Jackson Blake wants to forget.

But forgetting is much easier said than done.

While he's finding his weekly therapy sessions with Dr. Mark Fox helpful, he's frustrated with his progress.

That is until she suggests he go back to his first love: football.

Now with a renewed lease on life, Jackson is sleeping without nightmares and going after everything he wants in life. Including Mark.

Abigail tries to resist at first, but she can't help but succumb to Jackson's charms.

Both are on top of the world until one text message – a picture of them in an intimate embrace – ends up on the wrong phone. Just like that, Mark loses everything.

Without Mark, Jackson's promising career in professional football nearly comes to a halt.

But life, much like football, is a game of inches and Jackson is determined that when it comes to the game, and the man, he loves, he will not go down without a fight.
