LA INDIA (Spanish Edition) Sudhir Kakar, Kakar Katharina

En este sólido, esclarecedor y ameno estudio, el psicoanalista Sudhir Kakar y la antropóloga Katharina Kakar investigan la naturaleza de la «indianidad», esa unidad que subyace en la gran diversidad de la India, más allá de las diferencias étnicas o sociales. Centrándose en lo que constituye una común identidad india, los autores examinan en detalle el complejo mundo jerárquico de las relaciones sociales, basado en la institución de la casta; la particular concepción de los vínculos familiares, derivada de la idea de familia extensa; la influencia del ayurveda en la imagen del cuerpo humano y la salud; la pudorosa actitud hacia el sexo y el matrimonio; la situación de la mujer; o la percepción del “otro”, con especial énfasis en el conflicto hindú-musulmán. Apoyados en tres décadas de investigación y fuentes tan variadas como el Mahabharata, el Kamasutra, los escritos de Gandhi, las películas de Bollywood y el folclore popular, los autores han creado con esta obra un riquísimo y cromático retrato de la sociedad india.
