Whatever Next Mr. Wallace Sue Whitaker

Mr. Wallace would be the first to admit that the life of a teddy bear is not always easy. Even though he has never asked for more than a safe window sill where he can peacefully sit and watch the world go by, adventures are never too far away.

Maybe it is the twinkle in his amber glass eyes, or perhaps it is the appealing expression on his whiskery face that always seems to get Mr. Wallace into trouble, but somehow excitement and danger are waiting for this little teddy bear around every corner.

Suddenly survival becomes the only thing he is able to think about as one hazardous trial is quickly replaced by another. The courageous teddy bear barely manages to hold on to his whiskers!

However, one thing that Mr. Wallace does learn is that there are just as many good people as there are bad, and he hopes that good will always win in the end.

There is a home waiting for Mr. Wallace, if only he knew where it was.

Will his adventures ever end?
