Il peso di un'isola (Italian Edition) Virgilio Piñera

Virgilio Piñera si considerava un poeta segreto, diceva ironicamente che era un “poeta occasionale”, e non voleva diffondere in pubblico le sue composizioni. Malgrado ciò, la lettura dei suoi versi ci permette di comprovare la grandezza della sua opera poetica, al tempo stesso incredula e appassionata, barocca e colloquiale, essenzialmente incentrata nel dibattito lacerante tra vita e letteratura. Come dice Arrufat, questa dicotomia si manifesta “nell’apprezzamento del corpo umano al di sopra dell’anima, della realtà senza ornamenti e della ricerca del momento vitale prima delle considerazioni etiche, religiose, filosofiche”. Solo nella sua ultima tappa Piñera sembra recuperare il valore della letteratura e dell’artista, che considera creatore supremo di qualcosa di decisivo per l’uomo, interprete necessario, anche se ripudiato o mutilato, dell’irrealtà del reale.
