Entre la verdad y las mentiras (Bianca) (Spanish Edition) Lynne Graham

Era un hombre al que no podía decirle que no.

Tabby Glover era una joven de lengua afilada, independiente y rebelde, que estaba dispuesta a hacer cualquier cosa para que el multimillonario griego Acheron Dimitrakos la apoyase en la adopción de una niña que, al mismo tiempo, era hija de un primo lejano suyo. ¡Pero lo último que esperaba era una propuesta de matrimonio!

Solo podía decirle que sí, aunque el arrogante magnate la tratase con desprecio. Entonces, se enteró de que él también tenía sus motivos. ¿Se convertiría su matrimonio en algo más que una farsa mientras el delgado velo que separaba la verdad de las mentiras se levantaba?

La historia está bien estructurada, ningún cabo se deja suelto, la autora presta mucho cuidado a los detalles y las escenas fluyen con maestría. Lynne Graham no deja nada al azar y todo está perfectamente justificado. Escritura sólida y un final casi de película, la autora no decepciona con esta novela. El último capítulo es genial y con un desenlace en el que todo queda aclarado y hasta tiene sus sorpresas... Altamente recomendada, no debe faltar en nuestras bibliotecas de Harlequin.
