O romance histórico (Portuguese Edition) György Lukács

Escrito em 1936-37, O romance histórico de György Lukács é considerado o trabalho mais significativo do filósofo nos anos de exílio na União Soviética. Publicado pela Boitempo Editorial, inédito em português, o livro traz textos preparatórios para uma "estética marxista". Nele, o filósofo húngaro amadurece os fundamentos da sua teoria dos gêneros literários com uma abordagem materialista da história da literatura moderna e investiga a natureza da interação entre o espírito histórico e a grande literatura: correntes, ramificações e pontos de confluência que, do ponto de vista da teoria, são característicos e imprescindíveis. "E isso apenas em relação à literatura burguesa; a mudança provocada pelo realismo socialista ultrapassa os limites de meu estudo", delimita o autor.

O livro, que conta com apresentação de Arlenice Almeida da Silva e orelha de Carlos Eduardo Ornelas Berriel, mostra como a gênese e o desenvolvimento, a ascensão e o declínio do romance histórico são consequências necessárias das grandes convulsões sociais dos tempos modernos. "Estamos diante de um ensaio feito de deslocamentos e aproximações que entrelaçam literatura, experiência e figuração do tempo. Ele [...], sobretudo, enuncia de lugar improvável uma crítica corajosa contra o pensamento socialista ortodoxo, dito vulgar", afirma Arlenice.
