Under a Warlock's Spell Ann Cory

Minna enjoys her life in the village, working hard and filling her nights in the passionate embrace of her soul mate, Derik. She has more than she ever imagined, until her world collapses.

Derik, a master craftsman, loves his work and his beautiful Minna. His days are filled with thoughts of the woman he loves until he is captured and cursed. With a warlock manipulating his moves, he fights to hold onto his one desire.

Blagden will kill anyone that gets in his way, regardless the price. His lust for power and greed makes him relentless. He controls Derik's mind by turning him into a bloodthirsty monster. It is only the start of what Blagden has planned. When his attention turns to Minna, there is no stopping him – she will be his.

Minna is given the power of shape shifting to aid in her search for Derik. Against all odds, Minna must risk it all and bring Derik back to where their passion runs wild.
