County Down, where the Mountains of Mourne sweep down to the sea, has a rich heritage of myths and legends which is uniquely captured in this collection of tales by local storyteller Steve Lally. Discover the trails where St Patrick and the infamous outlaw Redmond O'Hanlon once roamed, the sites of heroic deeds were performed and the places where fairies and giants could once be found. Their origins lost in the mists of time, these stories, illustrated with twenty-five line drawings, bring alive the county's dramatic landscape and is sure to appeal to both residents and tourists alike.
