Slides and Negatives: Digitizing and Protecting Your Vintage Film Gary W. Clark

Slides and Negatives is the most complete guide to digitizing and preserving vintage film for family historians, genealogists, and archivists. This book takes a comprehensive look at four primary areas of interest that will help safeguard your film collection: 1) Archiving your slides and negatives for safe keeping 2) Cleaning the slides and negatives 3) Digitizing the images in optimal formats and size 4) Identifying and handling potentially hazardous film. A special YouTube channel is accessible from the book with dramatic burn-test videos of hazardous negatives that may be in family collections.
