What began as a relaxing Friday evening with friends ended in heartbreak for Roy and Sandi Ramos when he was diagnosed with cancer after suffering a sudden seizure. Sandi was unprepared for the duties that would fall on her shoulders as caregiver, duties that could have shaken her faith and resolve had she not trusted in the Lord. He Carries Me chronicles Roy's life with this debilitating disease, viewed through Sandi's eyes. She intimately recounts their story, describing the challenges they faced and how their love for each other and how God's mercy saw them through. The extensive knowledge Sandi gained as the caregiver of a terminally ill loved one led her to realize that little information is provided for those facing similar circumstances. Using the tools and tips she learned while caring for her ailing husband, Sandi brings readers an illuminating perspective of the challenges being a caregiver entails. Sandi and Roy's heartbreaking journey will encourage you to live each day to the fullest and you'll realize why Sandi says, He Carries Me.
