Josiah Silence, an amnesiac civil war veteran walks into the once bucolic Thunder Valley where a madman who calls himself God and his thug army have oppressed the people. Indians surround the valley and are keeping all penned in with the constant fear of attack.

Once there, Silence meets Rachel, a courageous young girl and the two of them form a unique alliance as he strives to solve the mystery of his past and stop the oppression of the false deity. Will he save the valley, the girl, his sanity? And is that love on the horizon for the man they call The Ghostmaker?

Kristin Sayler:

As a university student exactly feel bored to reading. If their teacher questioned them to go to the library or make summary for some reserve, they are complained. Just tiny students that has reading's spirit or real their passion. They just do what the professor want, like asked to the library. They go to right now there but nothing reading critically. Any students feel that looking at is not important, boring in addition to can't see colorful pictures on there. Yeah, it is to get complicated. Book is very important for yourself. As we know that on this period, many ways to get whatever you want. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. So , this Silence in God's Valley can make you feel more interested to read.
