God's Absolutes for Today and Eternity: How to Be Sure You're Going to Heaven Clarence Mast

Today, many people are concerned about where they are going when this life is over. There are many different religions and philosophies out there each espousing what may come after our life on earth is over. According to author Clarence Mast, Scriptural teachings on this subject are very specific, and can be clearly understood. In this book, he explores the nature of true redemption, and reminds us that a subject as serious as this should not be glossed over but investigated fully. Readers of God's Absolutes for Today and Eternity will be challenged to examine what they believe and why they believe it. They will also be prompted to consider what the Bible says we can know for certain about our eternal destiny.
