Unitarios: Historia de la facción política que diseñó la Argentina moderna (Spanish Edition) Ignacio Zubizarreta

Los unitarios fueron actores protagónicos de nuestro pasado. Marcaron #en el poder y en el llano, aquí y en el exilio# una larga época de la historia argentina. Su proyecto centralista fracasó, pero muchas de sus ideas sirvieron de modelo a los hombres que transformaron la nación en la segunda mitad del siglo XIX. Sin embargo, a pesar del inevitable capítulo que ocupan en cada texto escolar y de dar nombre, con Rivadavia a la cabeza, a innumerables avenidas, plazas, escuelas y hospitales de todo el país, buena parte de la historiografía se contentó con relegarlos a un rincón maniqueo de mero contrapunto con sus antagonistas los federales.

Sin descuidar el recorrido cronológico que va desde su irrupción en la escena pública de la mano de Rivadavia hacia 1820 hasta la vuelta del exilio después de Caseros, este libro explica las formas de acción de los unitarios y las características de su proyecto político al tiempo que, en un relato atrapante, da cuenta de su vida cotidiana y ahonda en aspectos poco conocidos como la organización de logias secretas para derrocar a Rosas.
