Indiana Firearms Law Reference Manual, Third Edition (Volume 3) Bryan Lee Ciyou

INDIANA FIREARMS LAW REFERENCE MANUAL, THIRD EDITION is the newest book written by attorney and author Bryan Lee Ciyou. His first two publications are: INDIANA HANDGUN LAW, 2005 EDITION (the "blue" book) and INDIANA HANDGUN LAW, SECOND EDITION (the "red" book). As you can see, the name of the Book has changed to encompass more categories of "firearms", not just "handguns." This, the third iteration of the Book, is wholly different from previous editions. However, for prior Readers, the Book should seem vaguely familiar, both in organization and content. The prior materials are reordered, rewritten, and new materials added, along with relevant changes in the law; all are analyzed. There are 20 chapters that include the following: Law-Making & Legal Processes, Classes & Grades of Crimes, Types of Firearms, Carrying without a license, Licensing, Long Guns, Airports, Schools, Courthouses & Penal Facilities, Administrative Agencies, Local Ordinances, The Workplace, Real Property, Emergency Regulation, Transporting, Reciprocal Carry, HR218, Prohibited Persons, Illegal Weapons, Deadly Force and Civil Liability. If you own a gun in the state of Indiana, you need this book.
